Kindly note that:

- a. This fee structure is effective as from 1st September 2023.
- b. The minimum fee for programme accreditation is €100.
- c. Any fees that would have been paid are non-refundable.
- d. Applicants are to pay the total fee in advance and the programme accreditation process starts only upon confirmation of payment of the amount due.
- e. Should additional fees be incurred as a result of a change in the number of ECTS or the MQF level, the MFHEA reserves the right to invoice the outstanding balance.
- f. In the case of accreditation of programmes involving online or blended learning, the total amount will include an additional 15% of the total cost to reflect the additional administrative processes associated with these types of programmes.
- g. If the programme already accredited is revised to add online/blended learning only, a minimum fee of €50 applies. The Reaccreditation Committee will determine if a revised accredited programme would need to be reaccredited or only undergo digital evaluation.
- h. If at any point in the application process, no feedback, requested documents, amendments or clarifications is/are provided by the providers for a period of three months, then the application will be considered null and void, and the applicant will need to submit a new application.
