From: Sandro Spiteri, Head of QA Unit	Date: 19 th December 2014	Comm. No.: 35/2014

Dear colleagues

As from January 2015, the NCFHE will be providing a new free service to current and prospective further and higher education providers. Regular information and training sessions will be held on the last Wednesday of the month to support applicants interested in the accreditation of either education providers or courses, or both. These sessions will be held at the NCFHE premises in Pembroke from 3.00 p.m. to 5.00 p.m. Interested participants need to register their interest for a particular session by writing to Ms Pauline Demanuele on qa.ncfhe@gov.mt. Participants will receive confirmation that the session is going to be held; unannounced participation is not possible.

Current and prospective further and higher education providers requesting information or guidance on how to accredit new entities or new courses will henceforth be directed to this service.

Regards

Sandro Spiteri
