Title: Intellectual Property Rights for Accredited Courses
From: Sandro Spiteri, Head of QA Unit	Date: 17 th November 2014	Comm. No.: 27/2014

Dear colleagues

Stakeholders may wish to note that for the purposes of its Register, the NCFHE lists a newly accredited course as pertaining to and being delivered by the registered accredited institution as it appears on the course application. The intellectual property rights (IPR) of the course itself are deemed to reside with its legal owner according to the contractual arrangements that the author/s of the course may have with the accredited institution that appears on the course application. The NCFHE shall not otherwise enter into the merits of the IPR of the course itself.

Regards

Sandro Spiteri
